

Letter: Flaschner: 'a jewel in our justice system'

To the editor:

On behalf of the Massachusetts Bar Foundation, I would like to join retired Supreme Judicial Court Justice John M. Greaney in congratulating the Flaschner Judicial Institute on the occasion of its 40th anniversary ("A salute to the Flaschner on its 40th anniversary," March 11). Flaschner plays an indispensable role in enhancing the administration of justice in Massachusetts.

Because we believe so strongly in the role judicial education plays in increasing access to justice, we have proudly supported Flaschner annually with major funding for its operations. Over the last 36 years, the MBF has awarded more than $3.5 million in grants to Flaschner. Particularly due to fundraising limitations set by the Judicial Code of Conduct, we know how important this support was and continues to be to this venerable institution run for judges by judges.

Flaschner is a jewel in our justice system. Our judiciary is stronger because of its efforts.
